Thirtieth Sunday

The Pharisee prides himself on being virtuous, comparing himself favourably with the publican, whom he despises. He says his prayer 'to himself' not to God, for in reality he himself is his god. Focusing on externals, he is blind to his own sin while certain that he knows the publican's failings. The publican knows truthfully who he is before God. Living in truth brings harmony within and between us.

Next Week: Salvation has come
Wisdom 11:22-12:2; Ps 144
2Thessalonians 1:11-2:2; Luke 19:1-10

Please pray for those who are ill: Edna Bentick; Trish Carey; Kim Crawford; John Duggan, James Ford; Virginia Hayward, Miriam Helby, Roger Johnstone; Travis Kingston; Kenneth Kirkham; Fran Knight; Ray Lee; Barry Leeder; Eileen Meade; Cecily O'Brien; Irene Peacock; Hugo Riggs and Cy Schreiber.

Living the Gospel - Competitive prayer: For the Pharisee, his prayer is a competition. He prays aloud so that others can hear him and be impressed. Perhaps he thinks that God is as impressed as those who look up to him? His prayer is also an opportunity to make himself look good at the expense of another. Certainly, prayer is a time to celebrate with God our triumphs and successes, but above all it is an opportunity to be truly honest with God and with ourselves. The prayer of the tax collector is the most honest of prayers. This honesty is what is impressive; not the competitive showing off.

Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop Postscript

Last Sunday's celebration of the Canonisation of Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop was a highlight of our Church Year through Mass and a party time social held after in our church hall. The highlight for me was the celebratory cake which we all duly shared with gusto and Gerard Nolan's 20 minute emotional presentation of the life and times of Mary MacKillop.

Sadly, our video player has absconded! So, we couldn't show the two videos of Saint Mary MacKillop's life in the hall. Thanks to Norma Longmuir, some parishioners adjourned to her place where they did watch both videos and were suitably impressed with them.

Should you have any knowledge as to the whereabouts of our video player, would you please arrange for its return or advise the office so that we can reclaim our property? There is some urgency in this matter as Melbourne Cup Day is just around the corner.

To everyone who put in the time and effort to make our Sunday social the great success it was, thank you on behalf of all our parishioners.

On Thursday this week, I gave our children at Blackheath Public School in their religious studies, a verbal and printed summary of Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop's life and qualification for Sainthood. They seemed suitably impressed! Thank you to Noeleen Cliff and our other RE Teachers for making this a very easy task for me, and I also thank the school principal, Mr Mark Rudd, for providing a special venue in which we gathered.

Parish Mission

The 10 home Masses have now been successfully completed, a number of home visits to housebound parishioners have been undertaken, and the final intense phase of the Mission is now well underway in the form of a nine-day Novena. Attendances at both home Masses, the 7am morning Masses and the evening services have exceeded my expectations and we now look forward to the conclusion of our Mission following this Wednesday's 7am Mass.

Again, many thanks to those of you who have made your homes available for the home Masses, and also to everyone who has worked so hard in our church for this major event. As of Thursday next, 28th October, normal Mass times as listed on the cover of our Bulletin will apply.

Blessings! Fr Bob

Gospel Focus - At rights with God

We are told that the tax collector, after his simple prayer, went home 'at rights with God'. What does it mean to be at rights with God? It is nothing more and nothing less than the entire Judeo-Christian story. The story of the Old Testament is the story of God calling the people to live in right relationship with God and with one another. The Gospels are the story of Jesus calling all people to a richer understanding of his compassionate Father so that they may once again be at rights with God. The story continues and it is our constant challenge to be at rights with God also. -from Liturgyhelp online
